60) The outcome of this meeting was the plaintiff signing out of the R.S.A.T. program.

61) On or about August 16, 2005 plaintiff underwent a new audiology examination.

62) As a result of this new examination plaintiff was fitted for new hearing aids bi-laterally. It was further determined by Mr. Gulp, the audiologist at "Wende" that plaintiff's hearing had become worse.

63) On or about August 27, 2005 plaintiff was housed in the Mental Health Unit - Observation Cell, where he remained until September 8, 2005. With no hearing aids.

64) On or about September 8, 2005 plaintiff was transferred from the custody of the New York State Department of Correctional Services and transferred to the custody of the New York State Office of Mental Health at Central New York Psychiatric Center.

65) Upon his arrival plaintiff was interviewed by Regina Miles, MD assistant psychiatrist at C. N. Y. P. C.

66) During this interview in the presence of William Davies a Security Hospital Treatment Assistant (hereinafter "S.H.T.A.") plaintiff told defendant Miles that he was bi-laterally hearing impaired and needed his hearing aids.

67) On or about September 9, 2005 "S.H.T.A." Steve Capolla brought plaintiff to a meeting with the treatment team.

68) Present was Robert Carr, Jim Burton, Pat Parotte, Chris Fullen, and Dr. E. Debroize.

69) Defendant Carr as plaintiff's assigned primary therapist spoke with plaintiff about the reasons for being at "C.N.Y.P.C." and any medical problems that may need to be addressed.

70) Plaintiff explained to Defendant Robert Carr and the other members of the treatment team that he was bi-laterally hearing impaired and would need reasonable accommodations to participate in treatment and therapeutic programs.

71) Based upon information and belief, "C.N.Y.P.C." did not have during the time relevant herein any staff member who was charged with the responsibility of evaluating requests for reasonable accommodations and or making a determination of accommodations needed.

72) On or about September 19, 2005 spoke with defendant Robert Carr and once again requested assistance in obtaining his hearing aids and reasonable accommodations.

73) Defendant Robert Carr told plaintiff that "C.N.Y.P.C." is not responsible to accommodate him and that he would have to wait until he returned to the custody of the New York State Department of Correctional Services.

74) On or about September 19, 2005 plaintiff wrote a letter to Mr. Robert Raymond acting American's with Disabilities Act Coordinator with the Department of Correctional Services.

75) In his letter plaintiff requested assistance from the Department of Correctional Services in obtaining his hearing aids from "Wende" and that the aids be forwarded to defendant Carr at "C.N.Y.P.C."

assistance his hearing aids.

77) On or about September 20, 2005 plaintiff spoke with defendant Regina Miles about obtaining his hearing aids and accommodations.

78) Plaintiff told defendant Miles that he was having difficulties hearing.

79) Defendant Regina Miles advised plaintiff that he would not get his hearing aids while at "C.N.Y.P.C." or any reasonable accommodations. This was stated in the presence of "S.H.T.A" Tim Brown and Andrea Leah, Ward 201 Nurse.

80) On or about October 4, 2005 plaintiff was seen by defendant Cindy Law, Nurse Practitioner.

81) Defendant Law examined plaintiff and checked his ears using a tuning Fork. She advised plaintiff that she would speak with plaintiff's primary therapist Robert Carr about getting his hearing aids.

82) On or about October 12, 2005 plaintiff spoke to Andrea Leah, Ward nurse and requested to

See Cindy Law because plaintiff was experiencing sharp pains in his rectal area.

77) Plaintiff signed up five more days before he was seen by defendant Cindy Law on or about October 18, 2005.

78) Defendant Law determined that plaintiff's pain was due to a large hemroid and prescribed hydrocortazone cream.

79) On or about October 24, 2005 plaintiff received a letter response from the Department of Correctional Services answering plaintiff's dated September 19, 2005 that requested assistance in obtaining plaintiff's hearing aids. The letter read in relevant part:

"I have been advised that your hearing aid molds were taken in August 2005, and the actual hearing aids have been located. Ms. Ann Andzel Corrections Counselor, Manual Communications, has advised me that Mr. Gullo, Audiologist, has them. She will be contacting your primary therapist, Mr. Robert Carr to arrange delivery to you."

80) A copy of the above letter was sent to Ms. Andzel and Robert Carr.

Page 21

- 81) On or about November 2, 2005 plaintiff was given his two hearing aids by defendant Cindy Law, Nurse Practitioner.
- 82) On or about November 2, 2005 plaintiff spoke with defendant Robert Carr.

91) On or about November 10, 2005 plaintiff met with the Director of the Office of Risk Management concerning his allegations of discrimination and denial of reasonable accommodations.

92) During the interview with defendant Doe, Director of Risk plaintiff informed him that "S.H.T.A." Chad Asch and John Dinardo were overheard by plaintiff and another patient making derogatory comments about the plaintiff's sexual orientation.

93) Plaintiff further told defendant Doe of the numerous unsuccessful attempts he had in getting reasonable accommodations. Also the difficulty in getting medical treatment for hemorrhoid removal.

94) On or about November 12, 2005 at approximately 6:50 p.m. in the dayroom on Ward 201 plaintiff witnessed "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo restrain another patient by grabbing the patient by his ankles, dragging him across the floor, swinging the patient and threw him against the wall.

95) Plaintiff confronted "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo and asked him was that really necessary.

96) While plaintiff was in a verbal altercation with defendant Dinardo, another "S.H.T.A." Frank RIOS dived from a cushion chair and grabbed plaintiff in a tight choke hold and brought him down to the floor smashing his face. Plaintiff's left hearing aid came out of his ear.

97) Plaintiff was on the floor and "S.H.T.A." FRANK RIOS had his arm wrapped around the neck of the plaintiff, "SHTA" John Dinardo twisted plaintiff's arm up his back and dragged plaintiff out of the day room.

98) Plaintiff was brought to the side room where defendant John Dinardo threatened plaintiff by saying "what do you want to do now Faggot?"

99) While in the side room where plaintiff was waiting, he had the rubber mold of his left hearing aid between his lips looking at the piece that came loose.

100) "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo snatched the hearing aid out of plaintiff's hand and forcefully twisted the right hearing aid out of plaintiff's right ear.

101) Defendant Dinardo told plaintiff "tell risk management that". Referring to an earlier

Page 25

Complaint Made against defendant John Dinardo and Chad Asch.

102) On or about November 12, 2005 plaintiff wrote a letter of Complaint to defendant John Doe, Director Risk Management.

103) On or about November 14, 2005 plaintiff signed up to see Dr. Regina Miles, MD and Robert Carr to inform them of the incident two days prior.

104) On or about November 14, 2005 plaintiff did see Ms. Cindy Law, Nurse Practitioner and advised her that his hearing aids were taken by John Dinardo.

105) Ms. Law as the medical specialist for plaintiff's ward was never informed by defendant Regina Miles, defendant Robert Carr, or any other member of the treatment team that plaintiff's hearing aids were taken.

106) On or about November 14, 2005 plaintiff wrote again to defendant John Doe, Director of Risk Management concerning the incident that occurred on November 12, 2005, alleging retaliatory treatment by "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo, and the refusal of defendant Regina Miles to return plaintiff's bi-lateral hearing aids.

107) With the November 14, 2005 letter to the Director of Risk Management plaintiff exhausted his administrative remedies.

108) On or about November 14, 2005 plaintiff wrote a letter of complaint to Mental Health Legal Service.

109) On or about November 15, 2005 plaintiff signed up to see defendant Regina Miles and defendant Robert Carr.

110) Plaintiff was not seen.

111) On or about November 15, 2005 at approximately 9:30 a.m., plaintiff spoke with defendant Cindy Law who told plaintiff that she inspected his hearing aids and 1) found them to be working and 2) with no apparent damage.

112) On or about November 15, 2005 at approximately

2:50 p.m. to 3:05 p.m. plaintiff was interviewed by defendant Cindy Law for a physical body check and to document what happened on November 12, 2005.

113) Plaintiff asked defendant Law why she was allowing his hearing aids to be withheld as a punishment?

114) On or about November 15, 2005 at approximately 4:00 p.m. plaintiff was interviewed by Mr. D. Abdul an investigator from the Office of Risk Management 115) Plaintiff re-stated his allegations to Mr. Abdul about S.H.T.A. John Dinardo, and Frank RZOS. And concerning his hearing aids.

116) On or about November 16, 2005 plaintiff met with defendant Regina Miles, MD, defendant Robert Carr, Senior "S.H.T.A." Glen Block, and Chris Fullen, RN in the nurses station on Ward 201.

117) The conversation/meeting centered around the altercation between plaintiff and "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo, and Frank Rios. As well as the fact that Dr. Miles was not willing to return plaintiff's hearing aids.

118) Plaintiff advised everyone present that arbitrarily taking away his hearing aids is illegal. That there is no legitimate reason to withhold the hearing aids other than the illegitimate one for punishment.

119) Plaintiff also advised that the way "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo and Frank Rios abused plaintiff was done with malicious intent.

120) On or about November 17, 2005 at approximately 9:00 a.m. plaintiff met with the full treatment team consisting of the following members: Dr. Regina Miles, md ; Robert Carr ; Jim Burton ; Glen Bilby ; Dr. E. Debroize, PhD ; Cindy Law ; Lynn Simone ; Kendra ; and Lucy Rv.

121) At the team meeting plaintiff asked the team

when he would be able to get his hearing aids back.

122) Jim Burton spoke for the treatment team saying that "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo reported to Patrick the ward nurse that I was chewing on my hearing aids, trying to break them.

123) Plaintiff responded by saying that "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo was retaliating against plaintiff for filing complaints against him to Risk Management and that if Patrick made that report he was relying on bad information.

124) Plaintiff also told the team about the prior comments made about plaintiff's sexual orientation by John Dinardo and Chad Asch.

125) On or about November 17, 2005 at approximately 2:00 pm plaintiff received his hearing aids from 201 Ward Unit Manager Jim Burton.

126) On or about November 18, 2005 plaintiff had an interview with a representative of

Page 30

Mental Health Legal Service and the attorney.

127) During the interview plaintiff told the staff from Mental Health Legal Services of the difficulties he has had trying to obtain reasonable accommodations such as close caption television, preferred seating and telephone amplifier.

128) Plaintiff also informed Mental Health Legal Services about the excessive use of force by "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo and "S.H.T.A." Frank Rios. And that even though plaintiff was wearing his hearing aids that were unlawfully held from him for five and a half days.

129) On or about November 18, 2005 at approximately 5:00 p.m. plaintiff was informed by Senior "S.H.T.A." Keith Richardson that Patrick the Ward Nurse wanted to speak with him.

130) On the way out of the dining room Senior "S.H.T.A." Richardson asked plaintiff to go to the first side room.

131) Nurse Patrick came in to speak with the plaintiff and ask the plaintiff about statements made to Dr. Regina Miles, md and to Risk Management.

132) Nurse Patrick was the ward nurse on duty on Saturday November 12, 2005 for the 3:00 pm to 11:00 pm shift. And was present during the entire incident with "S.H.T.A." John Dinardo and Frank Rios.

133) In the presence of Senior "S.H.T.A." Keith Richardson and "S.H.T.A." William D. Nurse Patrick threatened plaintiff by saying "you better recant your story and straighten things out Dr. Miles or when I come back to work Tuesday I will make it my life's work to insure you never get your hearing aids again."

134) Plaintiff then returned to the day room and requested to speak with the Nursing Supervisor on duty.

135) Nurse Administrator Cindy Comstock came to speak with the plaintiff about this incident

136) On or about November 28th, 2005 plaintiff signed up to see defendant Regina Miles, and Robert Carr.

137) Plaintiff also signed up to see defendant Cindy Law because plaintiff's hearing aid batteries needs to be replaced.

138) None of the above defendant's came to speak with plaintiff about the incident on 11/18/05.

139) Plaintiff did speak with Jim Barton Unit Manager and relayed the information about the threat made by Nurse Patrick.

140) On or about November 28th, 2005 plaintiff sent a letter of Complaint to Director of Risk Management regarding the statements and threats made by Nurse Patrick.

141) On or about November 28th, 2005 plaintiff filed a letter of Complaint with Mental Health Legal Services regarding the comments and threats of Nurse Patrick.

142) Plaintiff asked "S.H.T.A." James Vaneau to contact defendant Cindy Law and alert her to the fact that plaintiff needed batteries for his hearing aids.

143) On or about November 21st, 2005 defendant Regina Miles increased plaintiff's Lithium dosage by 300 mg. Thus plaintiff now takes 1800 mg of Lithium, 40 mg of Prozac and 50 mg of Trazadone.

144) Defendant Regina Miles never even informed or relayed the message that she was increasing his medication.

145) Plaintiff suffers from a mental disease but does not lack the mental capacity to participate in the planning of his course of treatment.

146) Plaintiff as a patient has a right to be notified of changes in his treatment.

05 cv 1459

147) On or about November 22, 2005 plaintiff signed up to see defendant Regina Miles, Robert Carr and Cindy Law.

148) Plaintiff was never seen.

149) On or about November 22, 2005 plaintiff requested from Senior "S.H.T.A." Michael Chapman for the close caption be turned on for the day room television so plaintiff could watch television with the rest of the patients.

150) Senior "S.H.T.A." Michael Chapman that he was not aware of any order written by the medical doctor or psychiatrist given permission for plaintiff to request close-caption.

151) It is obvious that plaintiff is bi-laterally hearing impaired because of the hearing aids he wears.

Page 35

152) On or about November 23, 2005 at approximately 9:50 a.m. plaintiff met with Mr. Dick Abdul from the Office of Risk Management.

153) Plaintiff related the incident between him and Nurse Patrick on 11-18-05

154) Plaintiff as of this date still had no batteries for his hearing aids.
